Q2. Which of these 12 questions would be genuinely valuable at your club?

Option	Brad	Chris	Esteban	Daniel
Early churn signals across golf, dining, and email — how many weeks before they resign?	✅			✅
Members one bad experience away from leaving — what was their last touchpoint?			✅	✅
After a complaint is resolved, does the member's behavior show recovery or quiet decline?		✅		✅
When post-round dining conversion drops, which bottleneck holes are responsible — dollar impact?				✅
Which tee time blocks produce the highest post-round F&B spend — what's different about them?			✅	✅
Which staffing patterns produce the best member satisfaction — how should we staff tomorrow?	✅		✅	✅
Where exactly are we losing F&B margin — course pace, staffing, or member mix problem?	✅		✅	✅
Which new members are failing to build habits in their first 90 days — what touchpoints are they missing?	✅	✅	✅	✅
Which events actually move the needle on retention — which members should we personally invite?	✅		✅	✅
Which members are seasonal risks — engaged peak months but pattern predicts off-season resignation?		✅		✅
When we give a comp/credit to recover a service failure, does it actually work — or do they leave anyway?		✅		✅

Selected count: Brad 5 | Chris 4 | Esteban 6 | Daniel 11

Q3. Which cross-domain signals do you currently have visibility into?

Option	Brad	Chris	Esteban	Daniel
Email open rate decline	✅	✅

Declining dining / F&B visits				✅
Dropped event participation	✅	✅		✅
Service complaints and feedback		✅		✅
None — no cross-domain visibility			✅

Q4. Which visibility gap costs your club the most revenue or members?

Option	Brad	Chris	Esteban	Daniel
Pace-of-play impact on dining revenue
Staffing gaps that hurt service quality and member satisfaction	✅	✅
Tee time routing — not optimized for retention value
Service complaint follow-through — things fall through the cracks
F&B margin — can't connect dining revenue to course activity
Honestly, all of the above equally			✅	✅

Q5. How confident are you in proving ROI of retention efforts to your board?

Option	Brad	Chris	Esteban	Daniel
1 — Not confident			✅	✅
2
3 — Somewhat

None of these

Selected count: Brad 8 | Chris 4 | Esteban 5 | Daniel 7

Q8. How should Swoop decide which actions auto-execute vs. queue for review?

Option	Brad	Chris	Esteban	Daniel
Everything comes to me first — I approve every action
Operational actions auto-execute; member-facing comes to me	✅
AI agent reviews and auto-approves when clear, escalates when ambiguous
Start fully manual, gradually unlock auto-execution as I build trust			✅	✅
No auto-execution ever — full control over every action		✅

Q9. What's the one thing that would make you say "I need this yesterday"?

Respondent	Response
Brad	(No response)
Chris	(No response)
Esteban	(No response)
Daniel	Real-time response/proactivity. Member health score sounds massively helpful.

Q10. Interested in our pilot program?

Option	Brad	Chris	Esteban	Daniel
Yes — I'd like to be considered for the pilot				✅
Maybe — send me more details first	✅	✅	✅
Not right now
